

Programme for 2017/18

All visits meet at Gorsley village hall before setting off

Mon. 15th May 2017

Woodview, Great Doward, Whitchurch, HR9 6DZ

Formal and informal gardens of about 4 acres including herbaceous borders, woodland, wild flower meadow, shrubs and seasonal bedding.

Entry £6 per person including tea/cake.

Leave from village hall 1.30pm.

Wed. 14th June 2017

Stockton Bury Gardens, nr Leominster, HR6 0HA.

Return visit to this 4 acre garden with its extensive collection of plants.

Entry £7. Lunch extra.

Leave from village hall 10am.

Mon. 17th July 2017

Church Cottage, Hentland, Ross on Wye, HR9 6LP.

Half acre garden packed with plants includes mixed borders, gravel garden, potager and pond.

Entry £3. Tea/cakes available. Plants for sale.

Leave from village hall 1.30pm.

Mon. 21st August 2017

The Old Rectory, Thrupton, HR2 9AX.

A 4 acre garden stocked with unusual perennials, roses, woodland borders, veg garden and pond.

Entry £4. Tea/cake £3.

Leave from village hall at 1.30pm.

Mon 16 October 2017

Bodenham Arboretum, Wolverley, Kidderminster, DY11 5TB.

Arboretum with many unusual trees/shrubs.

Entry £6.50. Restaurant on site.

Leave from village hall 10.30am.

Talks in the village hall start at 7.30pm

Mon. 20th November 2017.

Flowers in my Garden

Stephen Harley-Sloman showing us some unusual plants. Greetings cards for sale.

Mon. 11th Dec 2017

Christmas meal - venue to be decided

Mon 15 Jan 2018

Villa Gardens of the Italian Lakes

Robert Bryant talking about a selection of gardens on Lakes Maggiore, Garda and Como.

Mon 19 Feb 2018

The Scented Garden

Gail Plant interactive talk showing us plants for the Scented Garden.

Mon 19 March 2018

Aulden Farm from conception to chaos!

Alun and Jill Whitehead take a humorous look at the development of their garden

Mon 9 April 2018

AGM - PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A WEEK EARLIER THAN USUAL